

Renewable Energy Coordination Group 6th meeting, Vienna, 6 November 2018

Latest developments in the implementation of Renewable energy acquis

Stanislavka Nikoloska
Energy Agency of the Republic of Macedonia

Latest developments in the implementation of renewable energy acquis in Macedonia

- New Energy Law is adopted in May, 2018
- Secondary legislation is in process of preparation in accordance with article 236

Latest developments in the implementation of renewable energy acquis in Macedonia

Rulebook on Renewable energy sources is in final of adoption (expected to be adopted end of this year)

- Procedures for wind measurements are considerable improved ,
- Solid base for issuing of guaranties of origin of electricity produced from RES is introduced,
- Energy Agency will start the procedure to become a member of European Association of Issuing Bodies relating to develop, use and promote sustainable for guaranties of origin
- Support schemes: feed-in tariffs and feed-in premium for preferential producers are detail develop
- Net billing system for producers of electricity (house holders and small enterprises) for their own consumption are also recently introduced and will be regulated under Rules for energy supply and Network rules)

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION

Stanislavka Nikoloska
Energy Agency of the Republic of Macedonia