

Webinar – Providing guidance on combating energy poverty

Thursday, 29 September 2022, 14.00– 15.45

Online, via WEBEX

1. Introduction

14:00- 14:10	Welcome and introduction	ECS
--------------	--------------------------	-----

2. Guidelines to combat energy poverty - key messages from different political levels?

14.10-14.30	Policy guidelines on identifying and addressing energy poverty in the Energy Community Contracting Parties; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Suggested energy poverty indicators at national and local level; - Long- and short-term measures to address energy poverty. 	Branislava Marsenic, Marta Schulte-Fischedick, ECS
14.30-15.00	Overview of European Commission’s activities on energy poverty- new legislation, initiatives and policies addressing energy poor and vulnerable consumers	Veronique Marx, European Commission, DG ENER

15.00-15.30	Introduction to the new series of practical guidebooks focusing on the phases identified for local governments aiming to tackle energy poverty: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Planned content and basic idea of guidebooks- Common background to all three handbooks	Jeppe Mikél Jensen, EU Energy Poverty Advisory Hub (EPAH)
3. Closing remarks and key takeaways
15.30-15.45	Wrap up and next steps	ECS