

=====

Professor Alan Riley

=====

Short Form Curriculum Vitae

- Current Position: Senior Fellow, Institute for Statecraft, London, and Non-Resident Senior Fellow, Atlantic Council, Washington DC.
- Previous Roles: Professor of Law, City Law School, City University, London.
- Reader in Private Law, City Law School, City University, London.
- Senior Lecturer in European Competition Law, Nottingham Law School, Nottingham Trent University.
- Butterworths Tolley Senior Research Fellow in Competition Law and Practice, Centre for Legal Research, Nottingham Law School.
- Solicitor, EC Law Unit, Theodore Goddard.
- Degrees: Edinburgh University. PhD
Thesis Title: A Radical Thesis: Reforming EC Competition Law
- Edinburgh University,
EC Law LLM,
- Durham University,
BA Law
- Professional Qualifications: Qualified as a Solicitor of the Supreme Court of England and Wales in 1991.
- Advisory Roles: Advisor to EU governments on Energy Security Issues, and Advisor to Corporations, on energy, antitrust and trade issues. Advisor to EU & National Parliaments.

Schedule of Recent Publications

- ‘Brexit: Causes and Consequences’ (2016) CIDON Barcelona (with Francis Ghilies)
- “Nordstream 2: A Legal and Policy Analysis”, (2016) CEPS, Brussels.
- “The Potemkin Dragon: China-A Danger to Itself and the World (2016) Amazon Kindle Single, September 2016.
- ‘Nuking Misconceptions: Chinese SOEs and EU Merger Law’ (2016) European Competition Law Review, July Volume.
- “Delivering Brexit: Analysing the Risks and Opportunities”, (2016) Institute for Statecraft, London.
- “Ukraine v Russia & the Kleptocrats: How to Recover the Losses of Ukraine”, Atlantic Council Policy Paper, Washington DC, April 2016.
- “Dealing with the Chinese Investment Wave: Overhauling the Western Response” Institute for Statecraft, London, March 2016.
- “Nordstream 2: Too Many Obstacles-Legal, Economic and Political to be Delivered” Atlantic Council Washington DC, November 2015.
- “Prioritisation in EU Energy Policy: Energy Security First, then the Energy Union” Atlantic Council, Washington DC, June 2015
- “The Western Balkans and EU Energy Security” (2014) Institute for Statecraft, London.
- “Deploying the Energy Incentive: Reinforcing EU Integration in South-East Europe” (2013) CEPS, Brussels.
- ‘The Geostrategic Implications of the Shale Gas Revolution’ NATO Security Series (2012), Institute for Statecraft, London.
- ‘Commission v. Gazprom: The Antitrust Clash of the Decade?’ (2013) Nowa Europa, College of Europe, Natolin, pp57-91.”
- ‘EU Energy Roadmap 2050: EU External Policies for Future Energy Security’, (2012) European Parliament, Brussels;
- ‘The UK’s Energy Supply: Security or Independence’ Memorandum Submitted to the Energy and Climate Change Committee, (2011);
- Modernising Cartel Sanctions: Effective Sanctions for Price-Fixing in the European Union” (2011) ECLR pp551-563;
- ‘The Modernisation of EU Anti-Cartel Enforcement: Will the Commission Grasp the Opportunity?’ (2010) ECLR pp191-207.