

Webinar on ‘The new electricity package in the Energy Community’

Webinar – online

Wednesday, 8 February 2022

10:00 - 11.30 (CET)

Please note:

- The Link to join the webinar is shared after registration.
- For the webinar to start on time, we kindly invite all participants to join a few minutes prior to the session (online meeting will be open as of 9.50).

1. Welcome and Introduction

10.00-10.15	Opening and introduction by the European Commission and the Energy Community Secretariat	Yolanda Garcia-Mezquita, DG ENER, EC Dirk Buschle, Deputy Director EnCS
-------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------

2. The new electricity package

10.15-11.30	Legal framework and its transposition <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Electricity Directive (recast) - Electricity Regulation - ACER Regulation - Risk Preparedness Regulation (recast) - Network Codes and Guidelines <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o FCA o CACM o BAL o SO o ER This session will include a short introduction for each legal act, followed by a short Q&A session for all participants.	EnCS
-------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------

3. Closing
