Arne Fuchs is a partner based in McDermott's Frankfurt office and global co-chair of the firm's International Arbitration & Dispute Resolution practice group.

Arne has extensive experience advising States and State-owned entities as well as multinational and domestic companies in investment treaty arbitrations and international commercial arbitrations. He has experience with disputes conducted under the ICSID Convention, UNCITRAL ad hoc rules, most major institutional rules (including ICC, LCIA, HKIAC, SCAI and DIS Rules), as well as with pure ad hoc arbitration.

Arne has been recognized as one of "the most highly regarded arbitration lawyers from Europe" who "stand out as among the best of their generation for their exceptional counsel and arbitration work in complex international proceedings" by GAR's Who's Who Legal: Arbitration – Future Leaders. Similarly, Legal 500 EMEA and the Expert Guide Commercial Arbitration have recognized and recommended his dispute resolution expertise. Arne's clients and peers describe him as "very smart", "an excellent lawyer and arbitrator", "phenomenally hard working" and "a prominent name in the investment arbitration space".

In addition to his role as counsel, Arne is also acting as arbitrator. He is a Fellow of the Malaysian Institute of Arbitrators (FMIArb) and was appointed to the list of arbitrators of the Japan Commercial Arbitration Association (JCAA), the Panel of Arbitrators of the Asian International Arbitration Centre (AIAC) and the arbitrator and mediator pool of the Court of Arbitration of Art (CAfA).

Arne serves as delegate of the German National Committee of the ICC on the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR. He is a Member of the Arbitration Committee of the International Bar Association. In 2017, Arne was appointed by the ICC International Court of Arbitration as Regional Representative for the Europe and Russia Chapter of the ICC YAF (with a 2017-2019 mandate). He regularly speaks on international arbitration topics and teaches training courses and workshops on dispute resolution around the world.

Arne is admitted to the German Bar. He is a native level German and English speaker, speaks fluent French and reads Spanish.
