

Leveraging opportunities:
Workshop on bridging energy efficiency and energy poverty in NECP policies and measures

Wednesday, 26 June 2024, 9:30 – 12:40 (CET), Vienna

Time	Topic	Speaker
9:00-9:30	Welcome
9:30-10:00	Part 1: Welcome and introductory presentation
	Welcoming words	Claudia Canevari, Head of Unit, Energy Efficiency, European Commission, DG Energy
	Why bridging energy efficiency and energy poverty in NECPs?	Energy Community Secretariat
	The regulatory background of both topics in the NECPs and what's next?
10:00-12:45	Part 2: Presentations on best practice examples
10:00-10:40	Responding to planned policies and measures in NECPs:  Best practice example of an Energy Poverty Action Plan of Greece and the role of effective energy efficiency measures in it	Argyro Giakoumi, Expert Energy Policy Analysis, CRES, Greece  Q/A, Discussions
10:40-11:10	Coffee break
11:10-11:50	Guidance on how to identify and monitor the number of households in energy poverty for NECP reporting:  Practical insights from the ODYSSEE-MURE project	Iska Brunzema, Fraunhofer ISI, ODYSSEE-MURE project  Q/A, Discussions
11:50-12:30	Implementing energy efficiency and energy poverty through NECP policies and measures:  Best practice example from Moldova - EcoVoucher Programme as a tool to decrease the energy poverty	Ion Muntean, Director, National Center for Sustainable Energy, Moldova  Q/A, Discussions
12:30-12:40	Conclusions and closing of the meeting
12:40-14:00	Lunch break
14:00-15:30	Optional: Energy Community EUSEW Event:                  "How setting up an EMAS changes your operations: The Energy Community Secretariat's story on aspects, impacts, rules and checks"                  more information that can be found here	